What True Friendship Looks Like Why Should Christians Stand Up to Antisemitism? Join Hannah Garces, of the Philos Action League, in conversation with her friend, Rabbi Sam Hollander

When acts of antisemitism take place across the United States, Hannah and the PAL network of Christian volunteers show up, physically, in solidarity and friendship with the Jewish community. It is through friendship with Jewish individuals, including Rabbi Hollander, that led Hannah to make this cause her life's work, as everyday she makes the case to Christians across our country that it is important to stand up to Antisemitism.

Hannah Garces is the Advocacy Associate for the Philos Project and works to mobilize the Philos Action League. Born, raised, and based in New Jersey, Hannah holds a BA in History and Jewish Studies from Rutgers University as well as an MA in Islamic and Middle Eastern Studies from the Hebrew University in Jerusalem. Since her first trip to Israel in college, a piece of her heart remains in the land. It's that passion that drives her in standing up for Israel and against antisemitism. Prior to joining the team at the Philos Project, Hannah worked in the Israel advocacy space with StandWithUs for six years.
