Selichot
Service

*The Selichot Service [se-lee-chot]

is held either very early on the Sunday morning or on the Saturday night preceding Rosh Hashanah and takes its name from the penitential prayers recited during the days leading up to the High Holy Days. The service contains well-known elements of the Rosh Hashanah & Yom Kippur liturgy. Through these familiar prayers and their High Holy Day melodies, we prepare ourselves for the awesome days that await us.
